ILE MAURICE

An aerial photograph of the Le Méridien Ile Maurice resort. The resort is a long, multi-story building with a grey roof, situated along a curved, sandy beach. The beach is lined with numerous palm trees and several large, dark umbrellas. A swimming pool is visible near the resort. The ocean is a vibrant blue, and the sky is bright with scattered clouds. In the background, there is a lush green landscape with a small town and a prominent mountain peak in the distance.

ILE MAURICE

The resort is perched along a kilometer stretch of ivory sand in the north of the island. The vibrant tapestry of Mauritius weaves through with tropical inspirations from local artwork to authentic cuisines. Recently refurbished, Le Méridien Ile Maurice is a place for new discoveries and is the perfect mix for modern travelers.

A Culinary Infusion

A gourmet choice of four restaurants tantalises taste buds.

Jade, the beachfront Pan-asian restaurant uses fresh, flavoursome ingredients, to draw out the most authentic flavours. Waves restaurant offers authentic Creole flavours and striking views of the ocean's azure waves. Diners savour the slow-cooked, coconut-based curries served at Kumin. Nomad lives up to its name by offering an eclectic mix of international cuisine favouring the world's boldest flavours from oriental and Mauritian dishes to Mediterranean and Middle Eastern Mezzeh. For lovebirds, a bespoke candlelight dinner on the pier at the water's edge provides a compelling allure.

Jade

The resort's new pan-Asian fine dining destination, provides a gateway to the farrago flavours of the East. Discover a menu spanning the rich diversity of Asian cuisine, from sashimi and chirashi sushi to Khmer Fish Amok and dramatic Teppanyaki displays, to a feast of beautifully created Yakitori skewers served on a table-size barbecue with imaginative sake pairings. Every culinary creation provides a singular taste of Asia, presented with artistic passion.

Accessible for breakfast to guests staying in Nirvana Rooms & Adults in Royal Suites only.

Waves

...invites guests to gather for leisurely lunches centered around a sizzling barbecue brasero, where grilled lobster and red tuna is expertly paired with locally sourced produce. For dinner, a gastronomic affair comes to life with prime cuisines immersed with a hint of fresh curry pastes, pickled vegetables and fruits of the Indian Ocean.

Kumin

... comes to life at night with a buzzing ambience, serving Indian delights. The restaurant offers exotic curries with the finest spices and local ingredients. Indulge in an extra hot gosh rogan josh, creamy chicken korma or tender butter chicken. The choice is yours.

Nomad

...boasts a terrace with panoramic views of the Indian Ocean. Open for breakfast and dinner, the buffet is enhanced by a palette of flavors from Asia to Europe, with specialist chefs creating the magic of 'à la minute' cuisine in a centrally located open kitchen.

Latitude Bar

...lures coffee lovers with its sensory artisanal roasted coffees prepared by skilled baristas. When night falls, sip on oak barrel chardonnays, crisp pinks and effervescent sparkling wines. Here, both wine and coffee aficionados are spoiled for choice.

Papaya Bar

Soak up the sun and balmy sea breeze while enjoying a drink at the poolside. Savouring ice-cold beers, old-world and new-wave wines, crafted cocktails and refreshing fruit juices, leaving you feeling refreshed.

A high-angle, close-up photograph of a man and a woman sitting on a wooden dock. Their legs are extended into the water, and their feet are splashing. Both are holding light-colored drinks in blue mugs. The water is a deep, vibrant green with ripples and white foam from the splashing. The scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a tropical or island setting.
