Introduction

Welcome to the Maldives, where you can stroll barefoot along pristine white sand beaches, bask in the warm sunshine, and watch vibrant fish dart through crystal-clear waters. Guraidhoo Island, nestled in the Kaafu Atoll, is a serene retreat for those seeking tranquility amidst nature's splendor.

Inhabited since 1970, Guraidhoo is home to around 1,743 residents and features charmingly colorful houses and stunning coral reefs. The island's sandy streets reveal hidden gems, including a bikini beach and an exciting seasonal surfing spot.
Guraidhoo is renowned for its water activities, particularly surfing, as well as snorkeling and diving with turtles and dolphins. You can reach this picturesque island easily by ferry from Male at affordable rates, or by a 40-minute speedboat ride from Velana International Airport.
